RE: Interim In-Home Support Services through Appendix K

DATE: May 23, 2023

As previously noted in the May 4, 2023 DDSN Executive Memo entitled “Appendix K-Service Requests,” the Public Health Emergency (PHE) ended May 11, 2023. As part of the approved Appendix K, flexibilities were enacted which allowed individuals enrolled in the Intellectual Disability and Related Disabilities (ID/RD) and Head and Spinal Cord Injury (HASCI) Waivers to receive Interim In-Home Support services. Appendix K also permitted adapted qualification/training requirements for family members of individuals receiving In-Home Support through the Community Supports (CS), as well as the interim In-Home Supports received through the ID/RD and HASCI Waivers.

As a result of the end of the PHE, individuals who were not authorized to receive Interim In-Home Support services prior to May 11, 2023, will not be approved to begin receiving the service. Those who continue to meet the requirements for the service extension under Appendix K and who were authorized to receive Interim In-Home Support services prior to May 11, 2023, may continue through November 11, 2023. As previously noted, an approved plan change request is required for continuation.
